Go to <https://aliveinchrist.osv.com/> Then scroll down on the left hand side to the "Lectionary Link"... this has all the readings, saints, intercessions, prayers, etc. with discussion ideas for families.

Go to <https://www.loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/liturgical-year/lent/activities-and-resources/lent-at-home> for family activity ideas for Lent... if you go down on the right hand side of that page, there are links to MORE family Lent ideas, including a free family Lent calendar.

Go to <https://cathfamily.org/family-stations-of-the-cross/> and there is a script and idea for how to easily do the Stations of the Cross at home.

Go to <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions/stations-of-the-cross/scriptural-stations-of-the-cross.cfm> for a Scriptural Way of the Cross- better for maybe 4th grade and up.

Go to <http://catholicmom.com/2020/03/02/its-ok-to-be-unoriginal-this-lent/> for a good, short article for parents for Lent with their children. Plus this site has lots of good ideas for prayer, etc.

Franciscan:

FRANCISCAN

We're told that our name is the sweetest sound we can hear. But hearing our name called by someone who loves us renders it even sweeter—and when the One calling us by name is Jesus, it sounds infinitely more precious to us.

As we listen more intently to our Savior's call this Lent, the Forty Days of Devotion website can focus our attention through:

- “Called and Chosen,” the latest episode in the Metanoia series, in which Father Dave Pivonka, TOR, reminds us that Jesus calls each of us out of our tomb—out of the sin that binds us—and into a fuller life in him.
- “The Cross: Forgiveness, Life, and Calling,” a short video featuring University Chaplain Father Shawn Roberson, TOR, on what we receive when we humbly submit ourselves to Christ's cross.
- “Metanoia and Franciscan Spirituality,” an article quoting Father Jonathan St. André, TOR, '96, vice president of Franciscan Life, on St. Francis and the call to penance.

Other options: family Rosary

call/Facetime elderly relatives as a family

cook a meal as a family (and do a before and after mealtime prayer, <https://www.learnreligions.com/grace-before-meals-542644>)

take a walk and find a nice spot to sit and read the daily Gospel reading (especially if it's Sunday)

watch a religious movie as a family (A Hidden Life, the Shack, I Can Only Imagine, the Passion of the Christ etc.)

watch family home videos

- bag up some of your stash and put blessing bags on the doorsteps of the elderly around the neighborhood - after they've washed their hands of course!
- once the weather is stable enough - contact elderly neighbors or parish and offer to spring prep yards; rake, bag leaves ect.
- offer to sanitize tops of pews and door handles at the parish
- go on a prayer walk/bike ride around their neighborhood and if they can pray for their neighbors by name

- regularly call relatives that are alone or in lock-down, but prepare with questions about past/present/future/stories so that if the conversation lags they don't just end the call right away
- memorize a verse everyday - have a family competition with a prize every Sunday for everybody who gets all seven
- Spring cleaning - they have to find set number of things they can donate that maybe they aren't completely ready to give up yet, but that someone else could really benefit from right now.

Good Discussion Questions:

-who do you say that Jesus is?

- Why are you Catholic?

- Is your faith important to you? How so/why?

- What are some ways that we can make our faith more of a priority in our family?
